

Regional workshop on technical orientation and training for participating institutes at Sphoorthy engineering college ,Hyderabad on 26th-27th, June 2019

Regional workshop was organised for planning of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan activities for participating institutes to initiate work in adopted village cluster in Hyderabad ,in collaboration with MGNCRE on 22th-27th of June 2019 for participating institutions who have been selected in March and April 2019 under the UBA program.

The objective of the workshop are as follows:

- Introduction and vision of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan.
- MGNCRE is collaborating with the participating institutions for rural Community engagement.
- Learning life skills and internships in exploring on rural realities.
- Identify and demonstration of modern technologies for innovative solutions.
- Role of technical institutions for implementation of various government programs.
- Study and solving of adapted villages through institutions faculty and students.