

Regional workshop was organised for participating institutes at SVNIT Surat, 22th June 2019

Glimpse of SVNIT Surat Workshop held on 22nd June 2019

Regional workshop was organised for planning of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan activities for participating institutes to initiate work in adopted village cluster in west regions of the country in collaboration with AICTE and UGC on 22nd of June 2019 for participating institutions who have been selected in March and April 2019 under the UBA program. The aim of the workshop was to bring holistic development in Rural India & is inspired by vision of transnational change in rural development processes by leveraging knowledge institutions to help build the architecture of an inclusive India.