

Report on Mushroom Cultivation technology

Objective

The main objective is to encourage the villagers' to take up Mushroom Cultivation as an enterprise through adoption of Scientific Mushroom Cultivation technology.

Resource Person –

Dr. S. Chavan, Scientist (Plant Protection), Krishi vishawvidyalay

Scope Covered

Covered different topics viz., scope of mushroom cultivation in Chhattisgarh, importance of mushroom in relation to food, health; introduction to different edible and non-edible mushrooms in India, cultivation process of different commercial grown mushroom species in India, film show on success stories of mushroom growers to encourage farmers towards mushroom cultivation etc. Dr Chavan also carried out method demonstration on oyster and milky mushroom cultivation practices. Pre (35.0%) and post training evaluation (73.12%) of the participants were also carried out.

Participants

Total 35 villagers and farm women were actively participated.