

UBA Cell of Dogra Degree College Collaborates with the Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, for an Awareness Program on Welfare Schemes at Kartholi Upper

REPORT

The UBA Cell of Dogra Degree College, in collaboration with the Agricultural Department of Samba District, organized a comprehensive awareness program on various government welfare schemes on the 2nd of March, 2024. The event held in the presence of the public of Upper Kartholi, featured Mr. Somesh Sharma, Apiculture Development Assistant as the resource person, along with Mr. Rakesh Kundal from Demonstration cum Training Centre, Rakh Dhayansar.

The session aimed to educate the attendees about the numerous welfare schemes implemented by the government for the welfare and development of society.

Mr. Somesh Sharma, a distinguished social worker, delivered an insightful presentation, highlighting the significance of these schemes and their impact on the community. It encouraged the participants to actively participate in such programs for the betterment of society.

The collaboration between the UBA Cell and the Agricultural Department is part of a broader effort to engage with local communities and create awareness about government initiatives. The event received an overwhelming response from the public, with attendees expressing gratitude for the informative session.

The UBA Cell of Dogra Degree College is committed to organizing more such programs in the future to empower communities and drive positive change in society.
