

Literacy Awareness Campaign

Dated: 19th July 2019

On July 19, 2019, Rai University hosted a Literacy Awareness Campaign, bringing together students from the University of Pardubice, Czech Republic, and Rai University. The aim was to raise awareness among local residents about the importance of literacy. The collaborative effort of students from both universities proved instrumental in reaching out to the community and emphasizing the significance of literacy. Through various activities and initiatives, the campaign sought to empower individuals with essential knowledge and skills, contributing to the promotion of literacy in the local area.
