PRESS NOTE

WORLD POPULATION DAY CELEBRATIONS AT KGRL COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, BHIMAVARAM

DATE: Bhimavaram, 11th July 2025:

KGRL College of Pharmacy, Bhimavaram, observed World Population Day 11th July 2025 with great awareness and participation at the college Seminar Hall. The program aimed to emphasize the importance of population control, sustainable development, and public health concerns related to rising population trends.

The event commenced with a formal address by the Director & Principal, highlighting the significance of World Population Day and the need to educate society, especially youth, on managing population growth responsibly. Faculty members also spoke on issues such as resource management, environmental impact, and family welfare.

The program concluded with a collective commitment from participants to raise awareness on population-related challenges and to promote community responsibility in addressing them.

The Principal, faculty, and organizing committee appreciated the engagement of the students and emphasized the relevance of such initiatives in nurturing responsible future citizens.
