

Report on UBA Seminar on Rural Development

The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) unit of Indira Ganesan Educational Group organized an online seminar on the topic “Government Schemes and Procedures to Avail Subsidies and Grants” aimed at uplifting rural communities and improving their standard of living through the adoption and development of nearby villages.

Several distinguished guests participated and graced the occasion. During the event, Mr. Srinivasan, President of the Rotary Club, Tiruchirappalli, was appointed as the Advisor of the Indira Ganesan Educational Group. In his address, he shared valuable insights and pledged to support the education of underprivileged rural students by adopting them and funding their academic expenses. He also assured that all necessary facilities would be provided to promote the welfare of the students.

The seminar was presided over by Er. K. Rajasekaran, Secretary of the Educational Group. Dr. K. Balakrishnan, Director, delivered the presidential address, and Dr. M. Anusuya, Registrar, extended her greetings and felicitations.

Coordinators and Assistant Coordinators from all the constituent colleges of the Indira Ganesan Educational Group actively participated, making the event a grand success.

This seminar served as a vital bridge towards social progress and educational equality, reaffirming the institution’s commitment to rural development and community welfare.
