The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) Cell of Paavai College of Engineering successfully organized a Water Management Awareness Program at Pachal Village on 30th July 2027. The program commenced with a warm welcome to the Chief Guest, Mr. V. Hariharan, Principal, Paavai College of Engineering, along with faculty members, UBA coordinators, student volunteers, and village residents.

The inaugural address was delivered by the Chief Guest, who emphasized the importance of conserving water resources for future generations. He explained the current challenges of water scarcity and highlighted practical methods to improve water conservation, including rainwater harvesting, groundwater recharge, prevention of water pollution, efficient irrigation systems, and responsible water usage in daily life.

Student volunteers actively interacted with the villagers by explaining simple and cost-effective techniques for water conservation. Awareness was also created regarding the maintenance of village ponds, prevention of water wastage, and the importance of planting trees to improve groundwater levels. Informative pamphlets were distributed to the participants, and an interactive discussion session enabled villagers to clarify their doubts and share their experiences regarding water-related issues in the village.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, encouraging all participants to adopt sustainable water management practices and work together for the conservation of water resources.
