A DAY WITH SPECIAL ONES

Intellectual disability affects how they think, feel, and act. It also helps to determine how they handle stress, relate to others, and make healthy choices. Mental health is important at every stage of life, from childhood and adolescence through adulthood. Taking on the role of caring for someone with a mental challenges is a big commitment. It can be very emotionally and physically demanding, but it can also be a rewarding experience.

Polygarden is a charitable society registered under the Directorate of Social Action (Reg No-147/81). As per the objectives of the society, a permanent institution for the benefit of mentally challenged men was established in the name of Polygarden in the year 1981 at Lakkidi. Polygarden has been doing free social service for the downtrodden and mentally challenged people. this institution is rehabilitating, treating and educating mentally challenged, epileptic, and psychiatric patients across Kerala. The institution has completed 40 years of social service

Mental health nursing department and fifth semester students planned to spend a day with mentally challenged people and donate fund for them. We selected Polygarden for this purpose. On 16th April 2024, 89 students along with 2 faculties visited Polygarden at 10.00 AM. The staff in Polygarden gave introduction about their institution, its history, mission and services. 125 mentally challenged people are living there and they showed their hidden talents in front of us. Students also performed some programmes for them. It was a memorable day for the students. They shared their thoughts and feedback at the end of programme.
