Location: Adopted Village: Deeppura, Jaipur

Theme: The Struggle of Dr. Anandi Bai Joshi (India's First Female Doctor)

Guided By: Principal & UBA Coordinator Dr. Pankaj Kumar Soni

Organizing Institution: Mehta College and Institute of Technology, Grand Sikar Road, Jaipur

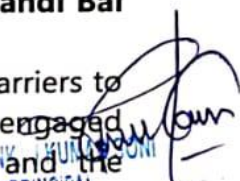

1. Objectives of the Activity

- To promote Girls' Education and gender sensitization among the rural population.
- To create awareness about historical female icons to inspire local communities.
- To fulfill the institutional social responsibility under the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan framework.
- To bridge the gap between academic institutions and rural development.

2. Detailed Description

The UBA cell of Mehta College and Institute of Technology organized a community outreach program in the adopted village of Deeppura. The centerpiece of the event was a Nukkad Natak (Street Play) depicting the life and struggles of Dr. Anandi Bai Joshi, India's first female doctor of Western medicine.

The performance aimed to highlight the importance of overcoming social barriers to education for girls. By using a theatrical medium, the students successfully engaged the villagers, fostering a sense of awareness regarding social equality and the
