

THE HINDU

Workshop held

Holy Cross College, Nagercoil, under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, organised a workshop on 'Gram panchayat development plan' on July 31. K. Ravichandran, Regional Coordinator, Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, Gandhigram Rural Institute, was the resource person. He addressed the PG students, faculty, village presidents, and village representatives of the adopted villages. He laid emphasis on the importance of students' role in the society and focused on various plans of the UBA meant for the betterment of villages. He urged the students and faculty to find out solutions to problems in villages for which they could get funds to carry out their proposals.
