Location: Panasalavalasa Village

Facilitator/Chair: Sri CLVRSV Prasad garu

Attendees: GMRIT students, College Management, Village President Sri Govind Gara, Elders including Thirumala Ranganatham Gare, and other villagers

1. Agenda

- Commemoration of Gandhiji's Anniversary
- Initiation of new Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) activities for village development
- Encouraging student participation in UBA projects

2. Discussion Summary

2.1. Gandhiji's Anniversary and the Importance of Village Development

Summary of Discussion:

The Praja Sabha was organized by GMRIT students on the occasion of Gandhiji's anniversary, marking the beginning of additional Unnat Bharat Abhiyan activities. The significance of self-reliance and rural development as promoted by Mahatma Gandhi was highlighted.

College Principal Sri CLVRSV Prasad Garu's Address:

He emphasized the need for modern development initiatives in the village and lauded the efforts of the students and college management for taking this step.

Elder Thirumala Ranganatham Gare's Address:

He inspired the gathering by discussing the importance of collective action for the village's progress and commended the young generation's role in nation-building.

2.2. Initiation of New Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Projects

Summary of Discussion:

GMRIT students actively engaged with the villagers to explain the upcoming activities under the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan program. These include sustainable development initiatives, infrastructure improvements, and educational workshops.

Decisions Made/Actions Taken:

It was decided that more UBA projects would be initiated, with student groups assigned specific tasks like sanitation awareness, education drives, and water conservation projects. Deadlines were established for initial project milestones.

2.3. Encouraging Student Participation

Summary of Discussion:

The college management encouraged students to take leadership roles in the UBA projects and emphasized the importance of hands-on participation in social initiatives for both their personal growth and the development of the village.

Decisions Made/Actions Taken:

Students volunteered for various tasks, including organizing community workshops and leading specific development projects.

3. Other Business

- Community members raised issues related to road infrastructure, and it was decided that these concerns would be addressed in future UBA projects.

Actions/Follow-ups:

Students will prepare a detailed project plan to address the infrastructure concerns, with input from the village elders.

4. Next Steps

Village Development Projects:

The student team will begin implementing sanitation and educational workshops in the coming weeks. The college will support with resources and guidance.

Student Involvement:

Weekly progress meetings will be conducted with student volunteers to monitor the development activities.
