

A Samajshala was organized on 11th May 2023 at Gayatri Parisar Awalkhera in Which student of Intercollege and resident of Gayatri Ashram take pledge of lifestyle for sustainable environment, Manager of Akhil Bishwa Gayatri Parisar Shri P. devangan brief about the work they done the various village of Awalkhera Cluster like fruits tree plantation , in kitchen they use Bio gas produced by Biogas plant in which food of around 500 people is made from Bio gas , slurry is used as organic Manure , they produce Vermi-Compost from Cow dung, also Here 26 types of medicines are made from cow urine , Gayatri Pariwar is a Local partner of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan with the collaboration of Gayatri pariwar here we have installed a 5 Ton capacity of Solar cold storage which was financed by Brunell University London in Feb. 2022. where any villager can Store their food , vegetable, and fruits for some days at free of cost , by this shelf life of their items Increase and they can sold the same for prolonged time, we have organized 3 day Mushroom cultivation training at Awalkhera for enhancing the income of local farmer from 14th to 16th Feb. 2022,we also conducted one day Tulsi Mala making training for capacity building of rural women on 26th August 2022, here a machine is also installed where wood manufactured from cow dung which Is used for funeral, Gayatri Trust also provide training of how to make vermi Compost from cow dung and making of Deepak from cow dungs, in future we have make a plan of making one room at Awalkhera from cow dung and soil in which vedik plaster will be done in a view of protecting the Environment from climate change, Trust also organize Bee keeping training ,Circular Economy run In their parisar like Cow eat foods they manufacture in their kitchen Garden and in kitchen Garden They use vermi-compost and manure manufactured from cow dung also they use organic farming in their kitchen garden and promote the same in the villages of Awalkhera by motivating the farmer. Gayatri trust alos runs a Intercollege and A Health Center at Awalkhera Cluster.