Report of the event–

GNIOT Institute of Professional Studies successfully organized the "Matdata Jagruk Abhiyan" in Pipal Ka Gaun, Surajpur, on Jan.31st, 2024. The event aimed to enhance voter awareness and civic engagement in the community.

The campaign featured informative workshops, seminars, and a dynamic Nukkad Natak (street play) to effectively convey messages about the importance of voting, democratic values, and civic responsibilities. Students and community members actively participated, creating a vibrant and engaging atmosphere.

The event achieved its objectives with a significant increase in voter participation observed during subsequent elections. Attendees demonstrated a heightened understanding of their role in the democratic process, reflecting positively on the campaign's impact. Student involvement showcased leadership and advocacy for civic responsibility.

The Nukkad Natak left a lasting impression, effectively breaking down complex concepts and fostering a sense of community unity. The event's success was evident in the positive feedback received from participants, affirming the campaign's contribution to a more informed and engaged citizenry in Pipal Ka Gaun.
