On March 8, 2024, Unnat Bharat Abhiyan in collaboration with Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan organized the Neighbourhood Youth Parliament under the aegis of Viksit Bharat@2047 at the Swami Vivekananda Auditorium, Deshbandhu College, University of Delhi. The event was organized under the dynamic guidance of Principal Prof. Rajendra K Pandey, UBA Coordinator Prof. Varsha Baweja, and Youth Officer Mrs. Neelu Thadani. The day started with the blessing of goddess Saraswati, lamp lighting, and recitation of Kulgeet of the University of Delhi.

As a gesture of respect, heartfelt felicitations in the form of saplings and mementoes were extended to the Chief Guest Prof. D S Chauhan (Chairperson Governing Body), Principal Prof. R K Pandey, Guest Speakers Prof. Vivek Kumar (from IIT Delhi) and Dr Monica Misra (from ANDC, Delhi)

Prof. Vivek Kumar enlightened the audience with his views on “New India New Initiatives”. In his address, he talked about various schemes launched by the Government of India like the Ujjwala Yojana, Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan, Jan Dhan Yojana, Jal Jeevan Yojana, and new milestones in space exploration.

Dr. Monica Mishra, the second guest speaker, gave an inspiring speech on Nari Shakti that highlighted the strength that women have to do anything in life. She elucidated by giving real-life heroic examples of the great women of India. This set the momentum for the subsequent events.

The topic of the mock parliament centred around the Women's Reservation Bill, sparking impassioned arguments from both sides. Ms. Revathy Menon, Assistant Professor, very effectively played the role of the Speaker, advocated for and against the motion, and also judged the event.

It was a captivating display of democratic fervour where young minds engaged in lively discourse on the Women's Reservation Bill. The day witnessed enthusiastic participation from students representing diverse perspectives.

At the end, students also participated in a quiz which was conducted by Dr Geeta, Assistant Professor, and a gift was given by Ms Neelu Thadani for each correct answer
