Activity Details

Empowering Rural Communities Through Digital Literacy

The NSS Unit of MIET took a step forward in bridging the digital divide by successfully conducting a Digital Literacy Program in the villages of Amb and Gharota. This initiative aimed to educate people about cybercrimes and essential safety measures in the ever-evolving digital space. Our enthusiastic NSS volunteers from CSE and MCA actively engaged with students, teachers, and shopkeepers, spreading awareness about secure online practices, data privacy, and digital fraud prevention.

Engaging and Educating the Community With the rapid increase in digital transactions, social media usage, and online services, the need for cyber awareness has never been greater. Through interactive sessions, real-life examples, and simple demonstrations, our volunteers ensured that their message reached every individual effectively. We focused on:

1. Recognizing and avoiding online scams
2. Safe browsing habits & password security
3. Social media privacy & responsible online behavior
4. Reporting cyber fraud & seeking help

Leading this incredible group of students was truly a privilege and a pleasure. Their dedication, teamwork, and willingness to serve made the program not only impactful but also deeply fulfilling. As we moved from schools to local shops, the engagement levels were inspiring—students were eager to learn, teachers welcomed new insights, and shopkeepers appreciated the guidance on safe digital payments and cybersecurity measures.

To add a touch of warmth, we also distributed chocolates and snacks to the school children as a small token of love and encouragement. The smiles and joy on their faces were a reminder of the importance of community-driven initiatives and the difference we can make through small yet meaningful gestures. This is just the beginning! As we continue to promote digital literacy and cyber safety, we look forward to organizing more outreach programs, workshops, and awareness drives to empower communities with knowledge and tools for a safer digital future.
