About Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan@ABESEC

Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan at ABESEC is inspired by the vision of transformational change in rural development processes by leveraging knowledge institutions to help build the architecture of an Inclusive India.

Under Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan Wing at ABESEC College was established on 2nd Oct. 2018 and it has constituted its organized structure. ABESEC has adopted 5 villages named as ‘Kushaliya, Kanauja, Matiala, Masuri and Mohiddinpur-Dabarasi’. Students of various technical domains along with their faculty mentors have visited these villages initially to complete the survey under predefined agenda. The survey was inclined as per structured format given by IIT-Delhi.

For its remarkable activities of UBA-ABESEC, honorable VC-AKTU honored ABES for excellence award. UBA wing distributed the ration-kits to 50 families under ‘Koi bhukha na soye Abhiyaan’ in pandemic lockdown time. UBA team members and volunteers have attended several webinars and workshops to make them aware on the area of rural upliftment. UBA wing has also conducted online webinars on NEP awareness, Corona safety, and invited speakers from IIT-Delhi and Ghaziabad district administration for informing national and district societal activities for rural upliftment. UBA is also working on 3 funded projects sponsored by IIT-Delhi.

VC-AKTU has nominated ABESEC as the nodal center for ‘Youth Skill Development Program’ to conduct the training for employability enhancement of rural youths. In this respect, UBA team is organizing various twenty-hour modular training programs by experts, each of 5 days in different fields like Lathe, Solar panel installation, CNC, Welding, AutoCAD, Automobile service center and office executive. The youths of nearby region and adopted villages are taking benefits of these programs.

Execution of ASIS Project in UBA-Adopted Village, Masuri- 1 Lakh Fund was Provided by IIT-Delhi (04 Dec. 2021)

Auto Solar Irrigation System is a modern world irrigation system that is used to irrigate fields by making use of modern day technologies. It aims to promote scientific irrigation practices and renewable source of energy to save the environment and natural resources, as well as increasing the crop quality and production. This system uses solar energy to operate a water pump to irrigate the agricultural fields. Moreover, it uses the concepts of Internet of Things, which makes the whole system “smart”. Using the capabilities of IoT, the pump can be operated while sitting anywhere in the world.

The module concludes with a powerful spiritual process to address the root cause of stress, to open the doors towards a holistic well-being. 120 Participants attended the same.

Quiz on “Read Nature’s Medicine” (06 Jan. 2023)

The Spiritual and Yoga Society (SYC) of ABESEC, along with UBA wing of ABESEC, Ghaziabad organized a Quiz event “Read Nature’s Medicines” on the occasion of the glorious theme of “Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav”.

The major use of herbal medicines is for health promotion and therapy for chronic, as opposed to life-threatening, conditions. However, usage of traditional remedies increases when conventional medicine is ineffective in the treatment of diseases, such as in advanced cancer and in the face of new infectious diseases.

In Covid'19 outbreak too, the majority population healed themselves by the use of Indian herbals. AICTE and AKTU have desired certain activities to be done on this theme and as ABESEC is also one of the AICTE-affiliated institutes, So, many activities are in pipeline in coherence with it.

A Quiz of 40 min. will be held on 6th January 2023 for First year and Second year and LE students in their respective classes. The topic for the quiz will be Read Nature's medicine to promote awareness on Indian herbals.

The Aims, Objectives, and Outcomes of the session are to get the impact on below:

AIM OF THE EVENT:

To make awareness on

1. Disease outbreaks increase proportionally with increases in intensive aquaculture.
2. Natural products including medicinal plants have been known from thousands of years for treating some human diseases.
3. It is well known that many active compounds are responsible for potential bio-activities. For that reason, there has been considerable interest in the use of medicinal plants in aquaculture with a view to providing safe and eco-friendly compounds for replacing antibiotics and chemical compounds as well as to enhance immune status and control fish diseases.

OBJECTIVES OF THE EVENT:

To assist all to conduct preclinical research to prove the effectiveness and safety of herbal medicine based on scientific evidence and according to the required standards.

To contribute to the discovery and authentication of herbal products in India with scientific information, with aims of enhancing their commercial value and improving penetration of international markets.

259 Participants appeared in same and 9 winners were felicitated with certificates.

World Tuberculosis Day, Distribution of 25 Kits to Patients in Adopted villages (24 March, 2023)

As per AKTU Circular (as per kind orders of Hon. Governor of UP) to all affiliated institutions, ABESEC, Ghaziabad made a remarkable efforts on 24/03/2023 for TB patients in its 5 adopted villages. A camp for nutritious food kits distribution was organized by UBA_ABESEC, where the above mentioned 3 student coordinators of UBA wing visited 5 adopted villages by UBA-ABESEC locations that are- Kannauja, Matiyala, Kaushalya, Masuri, Muhiddinpur Dabarsi.

On the day of WORLD TUBERCULOSIS 24th march 2023, the people suffering from TB in the above mentioned villages were provided help in the form of "AMRIT SAMAGRI" (Health kits) with different eatables and household items were presented to help the needy and eligible candidates.

A drive was conducted by ABES Engineering College on 24 March, 2023 enlightened by the day of World Tuberculosis Day in which patients suffering from TB were provided health kits in the form of Amrit Samagri to help in their times of need. The drive was conducted by student coordinators of UBA wing of ABESEC Ghaziabad. The drive was started from the ABESEC campus at 8:30 am on the same day with college staff Mr. Nand Kishor.

The Team distributed a health kit of 6 items comprising;

Sr. No.	Item given to TB Patients	Quantity per person distributed	Total Quantity given to all Beneficiaries
1	Gud	1 Kg.	25 kg.
2	Bhuna Chana	1 Kg.	25 kg.
3	Moongfali	500 gm.	12.5 Kg.
4	Chikki	250 gm.	7 kg.
5	Sattu	1 Kg.	25 kg.
6	Nutritious Biscuits	5 Packets	125 packets

Team already did the home work for this event and the UBA team enquired well about the beneficiaries and also checked their medical reports through Pradhan and CHO and after satisfying with enquiry, they politely and respectfully handed over the health kits to needy people and also guided them for the precautions of TB and safety measures.

The beneficiaries of this drive, Gram Pradhans of all 5 villages, health officers and VDO greeted ABESEC team for their selfless service for the society and they expressed heartfelt thanks and were proud of that ABESEC Ghaziabad has adopted them under its portal.

This noble event was successful with supervision, guidance, support and motivation and team work execution of authorities of ABESEC:

- Hon. Management authorities of ABESEC

In this interaction, CSIR scientists assumed the role of enthusiastic learners, endeavoring to gain a deep understanding of the challenges and issues faced by farmers and rural communities. The primary objective was to establish a clear and comprehensive grasp of the real-world problems and constraints experienced by these communities in their daily agricultural practices.

To achieve this, the scientists actively engaged with UBA stakeholders, including farmers, agricultural experts, and local community representatives. Through open and candid dialogues, they encouraged stakeholders to share their first-hand experiences, concerns, and aspirations. This approach fostered an environment of trust and mutual respect, enabling stakeholders to articulate their challenges with sincerity and clarity.

The CSIR scientists listened attentively, absorbing the valuable insights and perspectives offered by the stakeholders. They keenly observed the practical aspects of farming, including traditional practices, resource limitations, and the impact of environmental factors. By immersing themselves in the real-life context of rural India, the scientists gained a profound appreciation for the intricacies and complexities of agriculture in the country.

As the discussions unfolded, CSIR scientists probed deeper, seeking to identify specific pain points and areas where technological interventions could make a meaningful difference. They recognized that the solutions they could provide must be not only technologically advanced but also tailored to the unique needs and constraints of the farming communities.

The scientists were particularly interested in understanding the socioeconomic factors that influence farming decisions and the barriers that often hinder the adoption of new technologies. This holistic approach aimed to ensure that any innovations introduced would align seamlessly with the existing cultural and economic dynamics of the region.

Throughout the interaction, the scientists showcased a genuine commitment to empowering rural communities through scientific advancements. They emphasized that their goal was not merely to introduce technology for its own sake but to co-create solutions that would genuinely enhance the lives and livelihoods of farmers.

This interaction between CSIR scientists and UBA stakeholders exemplified a harmonious blend of scientific expertise and grassroots wisdom. It marked the beginning of a collaborative journey toward addressing the pressing challenges faced by rural India. As a result of this engagement, CSIR scientists gained profound insights that would inform their research and innovation efforts, ensuring that the technologies they develop are not only cutting-edge but also deeply rooted in the real-world needs of the farmers and communities they aim to serve. Ultimately, this interaction was a testament to the power of collaboration and the potential for science to drive positive change in rural India.

MODE: ONLINE
17th sept. 2023
11:00 A.M. onwards

Attended by 47 Students and 5 faculty members Online. The Team explained the intakes from Grassroot Innovations and Skill Development Conclave at New Delhi, that they attended in 13 Sept. 2023 and represented ABESEC, Ghaziabad.

The Team informed about the various rural development Techniques they attended in CSIR program. They Told the Attendees that..
In the Training Session on the Kisan Sabha App, Dr. Vinayak, Senior Scientist from CSIR-NIScPR, introduced the app and explained how it can greatly benefit farmers. Dr. Shiv Narayan Nishad, Senior Scientist from NIScPR and a co-developer of the app, expressed his gratitude towards NIScPR for their contribution in shaping the Kisan Sabha App. He further informed the audience that currently, around 10 lakh clients, including farmers and consumers, are actively using this app. The app provides access to real-time market information and various agricultural services. For instance, farmers can easily check Mandi prices through the app.

The Kisan Sabha App, at its core, serves as a pivotal bridge connecting farmers and consumers with an array of essential agricultural services and real-time market information. One of its standout features is the ability for farmers to access up-to-the-minute Mandi prices directly through the app, a functionality that significantly empowers them in making informed decisions about their produce.

This user-friendly and forward-thinking application has gained immense popularity among farmers and consumers alike, thanks to its user-centric design and its profound impact on the agricultural landscape. Through the Kisan Sabha App, countless individuals are now equipped with the information and resources needed to make informed decisions, enhance their agricultural practices, and ultimately uplift rural communities.

The remarkable figure of 10 lakh clients actively engaged with the app underscores the far-reaching impact of the Kisan Sabha App, highlighting its relevance and significance in today's agricultural ecosystem. As this app continues to evolve and expand, it holds the potential to further transform the lives and livelihoods of countless farmers and consumers, fostering a brighter future for agriculture in India.

The interaction between CSIR scientists and UBA (Unnat Bharat Abhiyan) stakeholders was a pivotal moment in the ongoing efforts to bridge the gap between cutting-edge science and the practical needs of rural India. This collaborative engagement was designed to facilitate a profound exchange of knowledge and insights between two diverse but interconnected worlds: the world of scientific innovation and the world of Indian agriculture.

VISION

Unnat Bharat Abhiyan is inspired by the vision of transformational change in rural development processes by leveraging knowledge institutions to help build the architecture of an Inclusive India.

The Mission of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan is to enable knowledge institutions to address the development challenges and creating appropriate solutions for accelerating sustainable growth. It also aims to create a virtuous cycle between society and an inclusive academic system by providing knowledge and practices for emerging professions and to upgrade the capabilities of both the public and the private sectors in responding to the development needs of rural India.

LETTER - Formation of UBA Cell.docx; Guidelines for Formation and Functioning of UBA Cell.pdf;

Dear Sir/Maam,

Greetings from Unnat Bharat Abhiyan!

As per the mandate of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) scheme, it is essential for Participating Institutions (PIs) to establish a UBA Cell within their institution. This cell will play a crucial role in ensuring the smooth implementation of activities in the UBA network villages.

We kindly request all PIs to share the details of the UBA Cell established in their institution. These details should be provided on the institution's letterhead (sample letter enclosed) and submitted via the following Google form: <https://forms.gle/RCXQLDaVahD oD9>.

For your reference, the Guidelines for the Formation and Functioning of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell are attached herewith.

6. To provide training for healthcare professionals or wellness practitioners interested in incorporating Vedic health modalities into their practice.
7. To create a platform for community members to learn, share experiences, and connect with others interested in Vedic health practices.
8. To foster a sense of community and support for individuals seeking alternative approaches to health and wellness.
9. To promote cross-cultural understanding by introducing participants to the rich cultural heritage and traditions associated with Vedic health systems.
10. To facilitate dialogue and exchange of ideas between practitioners of Vedic health systems and participants from diverse cultural backgrounds.
11. To raise awareness about the potential health benefits of incorporating Vedic health practices into one's lifestyle, such as stress reduction, improved digestion, enhanced immunity, and overall well-being.

12. To empower participants to take charge of their health and make informed decisions about their healthcare choices.
13. To encourage research and innovation in the field of Vedic health systems by showcasing recent developments, scientific studies, and emerging trends.
14. To provide a platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to share their findings, exchange ideas, and collaborate on future projects.

Expected Outcomes: At the end of the Workshop, the participants will be able to,

1. Participants gain a deeper understanding of the principles, philosophy, and practices of the Indian Vedic Health System, including Ayurveda, yoga, meditation, and herbal medicine.
2. Participants learn about the historical, cultural, and scientific foundations of Vedic health systems and their relevance in modern healthcare.
3. Participants acquire practical skills and techniques related to Vedic health practices, such as yoga asanas, pranayama (breathing exercises), meditation, herbal medicine preparation, or Ayurvedic cooking.
4. Healthcare professionals or wellness practitioners enhance their clinical skills and knowledge to integrate Vedic health modalities into their practice effectively.
5. Participants experience positive changes in their physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being through the adoption of Vedic health practices.
6. Participants learn strategies for preventive healthcare, lifestyle management, and self-care based on Ayurvedic principles to promote optimal health and vitality.
7. Participants feel empowered to take an active role in managing their health and making informed decisions about their healthcare choices.
8. Participants develop greater self-awareness, mindfulness, and resilience, leading to improved stress management, emotional balance, and overall quality of life.
9. Participants form connections and build relationships with like-minded individuals interested in Vedic health practices, creating a supportive community for ongoing learning and growth.
10. Participants engage in dialogue, share experiences, and exchange ideas with fellow participants, speakers, and facilitators, fostering a sense of belonging and camaraderie.
11. Participants gain a deeper appreciation for the rich cultural heritage and traditions associated with Vedic health systems, promoting cross-cultural understanding and respect.
12. Participants embrace diversity and inclusivity, recognizing the value of different perspectives and approaches to health and wellness from around the world.
