Activity Details

As part of the nationwide campaign Swachhta Pakhwara, the students of MIER College of Education, Jammu, conducted a cleanliness drive on 6th August 2025 in Nowgran village, situated in the Bishnah block Swachhta Pakhwara, launched under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, aims to promote awareness about hygiene, sanitation, and effective waste management, while fostering active community participation and responsibility towards maintaining a clean environment.

The drive was carried out by 26 NSS volunteers of School of Education (SOE) and School of Social Sciences and Humanities (SSSH), accompanied by four faculty members. The event commenced with an inaugural session held at the Panchayat Ghar, where the Sarpanch of Nowgran village, Mr. Susheel Kumar, extended a warm welcome and lauded the students for their initiative. Dr. Komal Sharma, NSS Programme Officer, introduced the objective of the drive and emphasized the significance of shared responsibility in sustaining environmental cleanliness.

Following the session, students actively engaged in cleaning different parts of the village including lanes, the local temple premises, and other public areas along with the playcards depicting slogans related to Swachhata. With the support of the college, they were equipped with brooms, gloves, and garbage bags, and ensured that all collected waste was properly segregated and disposed of.

The initiative made a tangible positive impact on the village and was wholeheartedly appreciated by the local residents, who expressed gratitude and encouraged more such community-driven efforts in the future. For the students, the experience was both enriching and enlightening, offering a practical platform to connect with society and contribute meaningfully.

This cleanliness drive was not only a key activity under Swachhta Pakhwara, but also a valuable step towards nurturing a culture of hygiene, civic responsibility, and environmental awareness. It underscored the power of collective action and the pivotal role educational institutions can play in promoting community development.

The event concluded on a high note with a strong sense of fulfillment and renewed commitment among the students and faculty to contribute towards the national vision of a cleaner, healthier India. Dr. Adit Gupta, Director/Principal of MIER College of Education, appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers and faculty. The drive was effectively coordinated by Dr. Komal Sharma, NSS Programme Officer, along with Mrs. Ayushi Grover, Member, NSS Unit.
