

SRI GURU GOBIND SINGH COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN

PAD DONATION DRIVE

Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, a student-led initiative from Sri Guru Gobind Singh College, Delhi University, marked the occasion of the International Day of the Girl with a remarkable pad donation drive on the 11th of October. Collaborating with the She Unit, ShubhKarman Foundation, and Pinkishe Foundation, this event was held at a girls' government school in Tilak Nagar, Delhi. The primary objective of this event was to promote women's empowerment and motivate and empower young girls in the community.

A successful drive aimed at addressing menstrual hygiene gathered an impressive response from students, faculty, and the community. This initiative sought to bridge the neglect of menstrual hygiene, particularly in underprivileged communities, and make a significant impact on young girls' lives. The event was a resounding success with donations of sanitary pads, menstrual hygiene products, and financial contributions. Volunteers and participants came together to raise awareness about menstrual hygiene and its role in empowering young girls. The initiative, led by Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, aspires to inspire and motivate people to contribute to women's empowerment, highlighting education, healthcare, and gender equality to create a society where every girl is motivated, empowered, and equipped to achieve her dreams.

In conclusion, the pad donation drive organized by Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, in collaboration with the She Unit, ShubhKarman Foundation and Pinkishe Foundation, on the occasion of International Day of the Girl, was a remarkable step towards women's empowerment and the betterment of society as a whole. The success of this event sends a powerful message that collective efforts can lead to positive change, and more people will be inspired to contribute to women's empowerment in their own ways, ensuring a brighter future for the girls of our nation.
